INTRODUCTORY OBSERVATIONS.

As this work may fall very generally into the hands of the Student, and may perhaps be no less useful to him than to the Practitioner, more especially in regard to the Rules to be observed in respect of the keeping of Terms, the filing of Articles of Service, attending Lectures, &c., a few words on the Study of the Law may not be misplaced. Writers whom we cannot pretend to equal have discussed the subject in general terms, and we do not propose to treat of the matter so much in the sense in which Blackstone, Wooddesson, and such eminent men have done, as with reference to the peculiar nature of the study of the Law, and how it is and can be studied in this country as distinguished from England. In England it is well known the professions of Barrister and Attorney are wholly distinct, and these again are each subdivided, not indeed by Law, but by usage, as the result chiefly of great wealth and a highly refined state of society, by which not only the legal but other professions, as also trades and the arts of manufacture become subdivided; thus, in the Medical profession, many in England devote themselves solely to some particular branch, as to pulmonary complaints, diseases of infants, &c. And so also the trades and manufacturing arts are subdivided more than in Canada, a consequence of which is that an excellence is acquired in each particular branch by the time and labour devoted exclusively to it, which as a whole tends greatly to the benefit of the public.

To instance the subdivision of the profession of Barristers in England it may be mentioned that many Counsel practise exclusively in some one of the Courts of Common Law, Equity, Bankruptcy, Admiralty, or the Divorce or Ecclesiastical Courts, and many again almost solely as conveyancers, special pleaders, equity draftsmen, criminal, nisi prius, advising, or chamber counsel.

Many Attorneys in England, either from the locality of their practice or peculiar circumstances, attend chiefly to particular branches of their profession; some to criminal law, some to chancery, bankruptcy, or agency business, &c. The writer was told of one Solicitor who had amassed a large fortune, and was chiefly consulted and called in to settle family differences, and had acquired in this some reputation. On another occasion, having to call on a large firm of Solicitors in London, he was asked by a porter in constant attendance in the hall what was the particular class of business he had to see after, whether chancery, bankruptcy, common law, or otherwise, and was then referred according to the nature of the business to that particular member of the firm who attended solely to that branch of the business.

As a general rule both Barristers and Attorneys (at least such who study with a view to practise for a livelihood) are drawn from the middle classes,—the former perhaps, however, from the wealthier and better connected among such classes, and having also this more important advantage over the latter, that with a view to their branch of the profession and the more arduous contest before them, they are more highly trained and educated, and have been perhaps selected for the higher instead of the lower grade as having evinced more than common natural ability or aptitude. The Barrister in England has usually had an University education, and after his call to the Bar has frequently for some five or six years sufficient leisure time not only to ground himself thoroughly in the knowledge of the profession, but to devote himself to general acquirements. Many indeed contribute largely to the literature of the day.

As may be supposed, the expense attendant on entering the profession in England is very considerable. The stamp duty on the articles of Clerkship as Attorney is £80 sterling. An ordinary premium to even a country Solicitor in respectable practice is from £300 to £500 sterling, and the admission fees are high. Counsel of standing are very particular as to whom they receive as students; a friend of the writer, who had studied three years in Canada, informed him that he applied to two or three eminent Counsel in England, and among others to Sir R. Bethell, now Lord Chancellor Westbury, to be allowed to study under them. He was asked whether he had received an University education and questioned as to his legal acquirements, &c. His friend had not received an University education and his legal attainments were not of the highest order. The result was that no arrangement was come to. The fee required in one or two instances was £200 sterling per annum.

The study and practice of the Law in Canada differ widely from that in England. In the first place the professions of Barrister and Attorney may be and usually are followed together. The call to the Bar and admission as Attorney also frequently take place in the same term. So little does Canadian practice agree with English ideas in this respect that by the universal etiquette of the Bar in England no Counsel receives a brief or has direct communication with a suitor except through the intervention of an Attorney, and this practice was so much without exception that it was supposed until a recent decision that counsel could not legally act in contravention of it, and we believe that recently a barrister was disbarred by his Inn of Court for so doing.

Whilst those studying and commencing the practice of the profession in Canada have many advantages as regards expense as compared with those in England, they have, on the other hand, very many disadvantages. They must be conversant with the knowledge of the profession in all its branches, the practice as well as the principles, with Equity as well as Common Law, the Rules of pleading and those of evidence—in short, place themselves in a position to be able, without extrinsic aid, to advise a client on any matter in which he may require advice and to carry through a suit in all its stages. A further disadvantage as regards legal proficiency has been, that heretofore at least the practitioner on commencing business has generally found himself too much employed to be able to devote much time to a careful course of study. There was a time in Canada, not very long since, when all that was required to secure a competent livelihood was honesty and attention to business. We apprehend that that time is now passed away, and that there is now also required a great amount of thorough knowledge of the profession. That this is so and is felt to be so is evidenced by the fact that as a general rule many students of the present day read harder than those of former years, and we have been told by one of the readers of the Law Society that some of the students who went up for examination for Scholarships in a recent Term were better Lawyers than many practitioners of several years standing. With the competition and the crowded state of the profession at the present day what is above stated might have been expected, and both student and practitioner will find that more is required from them now than heretofore.

The Benchers of the Law Society, following the example of the Inns of Court in England, have recently afforded to the student facilities for keeping pace with the increasing demand for sound legal acquirements. Four Barristers have been appointed to lecture on the various branches of Law, and four Scholarships in each year have been established of £30, £40, £50, and £60 each. Of this an account is more fully given, page 46. We believe the action of the Law Society will be attended with very excellent results. Law lectures are more necessary here than in England, from the fact that in many respects the Canadian Law differs altogether from the English Law, and the student is apt to be misled consequently by English Text-books, the only books that he can refer to. In some cases, as for example the practice of the Courts, the present law of descent of Real Estate in Upper Canada, and the Registry laws, the student has really no text-book whatever to instruct him. Nor is it only in the above that the services of the Readers will be of advantage. The student may have a difficulty in understanding the nature of such an interest as is named in the Dower Act, and out of which Dower may arise, viz: an estate partly legal and partly equitable, equal to an estate of inheritance in possession; in such and similar instances a carefully considered lecture may make clear that which perhaps some practitioners could not explain to their students at a moment's notice.

Some gentlemen possessing and conscious of talents and ability more adapted for public or political life than the Courts of Law, select rather the country towns as their place of business than Toronto, or the other cities where there is great competition among those highly qualified, some of whom are applying themselves to rise to eminence solely by the aid of their profession. The student, on commencing practice, judges for himself as to his peculiar talents and the locality for their exercise, but he will find assuredly that to attain distinction in his profession by legal acquirements alone will require both industry and ability on his part. If conscious of these essentials, and of possessing also what is sometimes termed a good legal mind, by which we understand that peculiar class of intellect which eminently qualifies for a Lawyer, comprising the power of close reasoning, of concentration, quick perception of the real points of a case, proper deduction from and application of principles, he may look forward not only to success at the Bar of Upper Canada, but to a fair chance of success at the Bar in England, for under recent rules of the Inns of Court, Colonial Barristers are to be admitted to be called to the English Bar merely on payment of the usual fees, less the amount paid on call to the Colonial Bar—an extension of the right which had been theretofore conceded to Colonial Barristers to be heard before the Privy Council on appeals.

Writs of Summons and Capias issue alternately from either court.

Practice Court and Chambers.

Clerk—William B. Heward.

One of the Common Law Judges holds a Court during each term, called the "Practice Court," for hearing matters relating to the adding or justifying bail, discharging insolvent debtors, administering oaths, hearing and determining matters on motion, and making rules and orders in causes and business depending in either of said law courts. Chambers are held each day in Common Law and Chancery by one of the Judges of the said Courts, for such business relating to suits therein as may be transacted by a single Judge out of Court.

Heir and Devisee Commission.

(Established under Provincial Statute 8 Vic. cap. 8.)

COMMISSIONERS.

The Judges of the Courts of Queen's Bench, Chancery, and Common Pleas, and such other persons as may be appointed by commission under the Great Seal.

Clerk of Commissioners—William B. Heward.

The duties of the Commissioners are to determine claims under assignments, &c., to lands in Upper Canada, for which no patent has issued from the Crown, in favour of the proper claimants, whether as heirs, devisees or assignees of the original nominees of the Crown.

The Commissioners meet, in Toronto, the first Monday of January and July in each year, continuing till Saturday of the following week.

County Courts.

These Courts are Courts of Record, and are presided over by resident Judges in each county, being barristers of at least five years standing. Their jurisdiction extends to all personal actions where the debt or damages claimed do not exceed £50; and to all suits relating to debt, covenant or contract, where the amount is ascertained by the acts of the parties or signature of the defendant to £100; and in cases of torts to personal chattels to £30, and to all bail bonds and recognizances of bail given in the County Court to any amount, with trial by jury, but not to cases involving the title to lands (except actions of ejectment in certain cases, as after mentioned), validity of wills or settlements, or actions for libel, slander, crim. con. or seduction. An appeal lies to either of the superior courts of Queen's Bench or Common Pleas. The County Courts also possess equity jurisdiction to the amount of £50, under 16 Vic. cap. 119, subject to an appeal to the Court of Chancery, and jurisdiction in ejectment for the recovery of lands, where the yearly value does not exceed $200, in the following cases, viz.: (1). Where the term and interest of the tenant shall have expired or been determined by a legal notice to quit, and (2) Where the rent shall be 60 days in arrear and the landlord shall have right by law to re-enter for non-payment thereof; registration of bills of sale and chattel mortgages, under 20 Vic. cap. 8; also the registration of limited partnerships, under 12 Vic. cap. 75.

County Court Terms.—These terms are regulated by statute 20 Vic. cap. 58. There are four of one week each in each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, April, July and October, and ending on the Saturday of the same week. The sittings are the same as the Quarter Sessions, namely, the second Tuesday in March, June, September and December, in each year. Vacation from 1st July to 21st August.

Surrogate Courts.

Surrogate Clerk—Charles Fitzgibbon, Toronto.

These Courts, since September, 1858, have been regulated by the Consolidated Statutes U. C. cap. 16. The Court of Probate for Upper Canada is abolished, and its powers (with some exceptions) exercised by the Surrogate Courts, of which there is one in each county, holding its sittings in the county town. The jurisdiction of these courts relates to all testamentary matters and causes, and to the granting or revoking of probates of wills and letters of administration of the effects of deceased persons having estate or effects in Upper Canada, and all matters arising out of or connected with the grant or revocation of probate or administration, subject to an appeal to the Court of Chancery.

There are four terms, commencing on the first Monday in the months of January, April, July and October, and ending on the Saturday of the same week. The Judge of the County Court is ex-officio the Judge of the Surrogate Court.

By sec. 66 of chap. 16 of the Consolidated Statutes for Upper Canada, it is enacted that the Judge of any Surrogate Court may allow to the executor, or trustee or administrator, acting under will or letters of administration, a fair and reasonable allowance for his care, pains and trouble, and his time expended in or about the executorship, trusteeship or administration of the estate and effects vested in him, under any will or letters of administration, and in administering, disposing of and arranging and settling the same, and generally in arranging and settling the affairs of the estate, and therefor may make an order or orders from time to time, and the same shall be allowed to an executor, trustee or administrator, in passing his accounts.

In England, there does not seem to be any statute or law for allowances to executors or administrators. In New York, the law is similar to the above; and the decisions as to allowances, &c., in New York State, will be found in the American notes to the case of Robinson v. Pett, reported in Vol. 2 of White & Tudor's Leading Cases, American edition.

Courts of Quarter Sessions.

The County Judge in each county is the chairman of the Court of Quarter Sessions, and, with one or more justices of the peace, holds a court in his county four times a year for trials by jury in cases of larceny, misdemeanor, and other minor offences, and for the decision of appeals from summary convictions. The Court has also the supervision of some of the accounts in the county, relating to the administration of justice, &c.

Sittings second Tuesday in March, June, September, and December, in each year, with power of adjournment.

Recorder's Courts.

In the cities of Toronto, Hamilton, London, Kingston, and Ottawa, the Recorder's Court takes the place of the County Sessions, the Justices for Counties having no jurisdiction in the cities, the care of which is confided to the Recorder, Mayor, Aldermen, and Police Magistrate of each. The City Sessions are held four times a year, on the second Monday in January, first Monday in April and July, and third Monday in November.

RECORDERS.

George Duggan.....	Toronto.
Archibald J. McDonell	Kingston.
John E. Start.....	Hamilton.
William Horton.....	London.
John B. Lewis	Ottawa.

Insolvent Debtor's Courts.

The County Judge in each County presides in these Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors.

Division Courts.

These Courts are held in different places in each county by the County Judge, for the summary disposal of cases; but a jury of five persons may be demanded in certain cases. Their jurisdiction extends to actions of debt or contract amounting to £25, injuries or torts to personal chattels amounting to £10, but not to actions for gambling debts, liquors drunk in a tavern, or notes of hand given therefor, ejectment, title to land, &c., or any toll, custom or franchise, will or settlement, malicious prosecution, libel, slander, crim. con., seduction, or breach of promise, or actions against a justice of the peace for any thing done by him in the execution of his office, if he objects to it.

Attachments against personal property of debtors absconding from the province, leaving property liable to execution, or removing their goods from one county to another or from the province, with intent to defraud, or keeping concealed to avoid service of process, with intent to defraud, may be issued by the Clerk of the Division or by the Judge or any Justice of the Peace.

Courts are held once in two months in each division, or oftener, at the discretion of the Judge. The divisions are established by the Courts of Quarter Sessions.

OFFICERS OF THE COURTS.

CLERKS OF ASSIZE.

By the 19th sec. of ch. 11, Consolidated Statutes U. C., in the Home Counties, the Clerks of the Crown and Pleas for the time being of the superior courts respectively act alternately personally or by deputy as Marshal and Clerk of Assize.

ACTING CLERK OF ASSIZE.

The Deputy Clerks of the Crown are ex-officio Clerks of Assize and Marshals in their respective counties.

DEPUTY CLERKS OF THE CROWN.

THE LAW SOCIETY OF UPPER CANADA.

The Law Society of Upper Canada was first established in 1797, by the Act 37 George III. cap. 13, which enabled the then Practitioners of the Law to form themselves into a Society, and make Rules for its government, under the inspection of the Judges, as Visitors. The Act of 1822 (2 George IV. cap. 5), incorporated the "Treasurer and Benchers of the Law Society," giving a perpetual succession, and a common seal, in the usual manner of Acts of Incorporation.

Under these statutes, the Society is governed by the Board of Benchers, in the same manner as the various Law Societies in London, England. The Benchers sit in convocation every Term, for the admission of Students and Barristers, and the examination of fitness and capacity of Attornies, and for other general business. The examination for Students at Law, which is a Scholastic examination, is conducted in the presence of the Benchers; and the examination of Barristers, at the end of the term of five years after admission, and of Attornies, after the service of five years as Law Clerk, is conducted by the Benchers in convocation. These last two examinations are in the various branches of legal learning. Each Student at Law, on admission, is a member of the Society, and entitled to the use of the Library. The Revenue of the Society consists of the fees paid by Students-at-Law, and Barristers, and Attornies, on their admission; and the fees called Term Fees, charged to practising Barristers. By an agreement with the Government, the Society furnish the Superior Courts with suitable accommodation, for ever, for the sum of £6,000 currency. The Library of the Society is of considerable value, and is of great service to the Students and Practitioners. The Treasurer is elected annually, in Michaelmas Term, and enters upon his duties on the first day of the following term.

CERTIFICATES OF FITNESS FOR ADMISSION AS ATTORNEYS OR SOLICITORS.

TO KEEP TERMS.

Every Candidate for Certificate of fitness for Admission as Attorney or Solicitor, shall keep two Terms pursuant to the Statute in that behalf.

The two Terms to be kept by Articled Clerks under the Statute shall be kept by their attending the sittings of the Courts of Queen's Bench and Common Pleas, or one of them, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act and of the Rules of the said Courts in that behalf, every day on which such courts, or either of them sit during Term, and by their entering their names, and subscribing their declaration of attendance in the Articled Clerk's Attendance Book of such Courts, or either of them, pursuant to the said Rules of Court respectively.

Every such Candidate shall leave with the Secretary of this Society a certificate or certificates of such attendance from the Clerks of such Court or Courts, together with his petition for certificate of fitness, articles, and other papers, or sufficiently excuse the production thereof as prescribed by the said Act, and the Rules of the Society respecting the same.

In case any such Articled Clerk while at Toronto for the purpose of attending the sittings of such Courts, or either of them, in compliance with the requirements of the said Act, be, from sickness or other unavoidable impediment, prevented from being or remaining in attendance in Court for the whole or any part of the Term, that such Court or Courts may be sitting on any day in either of such Terms, said Articled Clerk shall, nevertheless, be allowed such day or days attendance, as within the meaning of the said Act, upon his satisfying the Clerks of the Crown and Pleas of the said two Courts by certificate from his Medical Attendant or otherwise to their satisfaction that such sickness or other unavoidable impediment was the sole cause of such absence; and upon such Articled Clerk leaving with the Secretary of this Society a certificate thereof under the hands of such Clerks of the Crown and Pleas at the same time that he leaves his petition for certificate of fitness and other papers, as hereinafter prescribed.

All applications for Certificates of Fitness for Admission as Attorney or Solicitor under the said Act shall be by petition in writing, addressed to the Benchers of the Society in Convocation, and every such petition, together with the documents required by, and the fees payable to this Society under the said Act, or under the Rules of the said Courts, or those of this Society, shall be left with the Secretary of the Society at Osgoode Hall, on or before the third Saturday next before the Term in which such petition is to be presented, and the Sub-Treasurer's receipt for such fees shall be a sufficient authority to the "Examiners for Call" to examine the Applicant by written or printed questions.

Every Candidate for a Certificate of Fitness for admission as an Attorney or Solicitor under the said Act, shall, with his petition for such certificate, leave with the Secretary of the Society at Osgoode Hall, answers to the several questions set forth in the Schedule to this rule annexed marked "B.," signed by the Attorney or Solicitor with whom such Articled Clerk has served his clerkship, together with the certificate in the said last-mentioned Schedule also contained.

In case any such Candidate at the time of leaving his petition for Certificate of Fitness and papers, with the Secretary of this Society as hereinbefore provided, proves to the satisfaction of the said Secretary, that it has not been in his power to procure the answers to the questions contained in the said Schedule "B," from the Attorney or Solicitor with whom he may have served any part of the time under his articles, or from the agent of such Attorney, or the Certificate of Service therein also contained, the said Secretary shall state such circumstances specially in his report to Convocation on such Articled Clerk's petition, and thereupon the Benchers in Convocation may dispense with the production of such last-mentioned answers and Certificates, or any of them, as they may think fit and reasonable.

EXAMINATION FOR CERTIFICATES OF FITNESS.

SUSPENSION OF BARRISTERS.

STRUCK OFF THE ROLL OF ATTORNEYS AND SOLICITORS BY ANY OF THE SUPERIOR COURTS.

Upon any order being made by any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law and Equity in Upper Canada, whereby any person, being at the time a member of this Society, is ordered to be struck off the Roll of Attorneys or Solicitors of such Court, and whereby it is also further ordered that such order shall be transmitted by the proper officer of such Court to the Treasurer of this Society, such person so ordered to be struck off the Rolls of such Court shall, ipso facto, be suspended from the exercise of all and singular the rights, powers, and privileges belonging to him in this Society, or elsewhere, as a member thereof; and such suspension shall continue until such person be restored to the Rolls of such Court as an Attorney or Solicitor thereof, and also to the Rolls of such other of the said courts as may, on communication of such order or otherwise, have ordered him to be struck off their Rolls respectively.

Such suspension shall in no respect be deemed an affirmation on the part of this Society, or any of the authorities thereof, of the correctness of the grounds upon which the decision of such Court or Courts is founded, but as a mere legal consequence attached to such decision.

Such suspension shall not preclude the adoption of proceedings by impeachment or otherwise, according to the course of this Society, before the Benchers thereof in Convocation, for disbarring and expelling such person from this Society, on the same grounds upon which any such Court may have proceeded to remove him from their Rolls, or any other that may render such proceedings necessary or proper in that behalf.

It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of this Society on receipt of any such order from the proper officer of any of the said Courts, to lay the same before the Benchers of this Society in Convocation at their next meeting; and the same shall be thereupon entered at length upon the Journals of Convocation, but no entry of such suspension shall be entered upon the Rolls of this Society.

Upon the Treasurer of this Society being informed of orders having been made by the said Courts, or by the Courts which removed any such person from their Rolls as aforesaid, for the restoration of such person to such Rolls, it shall be his duty to procure office copies of such orders so restoring such person to the Rolls of such Courts, and to lay the same before the Benchers of this Society in Convocation at their next meeting; and the same shall thereupon be entered at length upon the Journals of Convocation.

J. B. MACAULAY,

TREASURER.

RULE OF THE LAW SOCIETY

ESTABLISHING

THE "LAW SCHOOL OF OSGOODE HALL."

By the Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada in Convocation, with the approbation of the Judges of the Superior Courts, as Visitors of the said Society.

It is Ordained, as follows :

1. That there be established a School of Law, to have its seat at Osgoode Hall, and to be designated the "Law School of Osgoode Hall."
2. That the tuition of the pupils attending such Law School be by means of lectures, readings, and mootings, and otherwise, as may from time to time be prescribed by rules and regulations for the conduct of the said school, to be framed by a Standing Committee of the Society on Legal Education.
3. That the tuition of the pupils of the said school be conducted by four readers, to be designated respectively—the Reader on Common Law, the Reader on Equity, the Reader on Commercial Law, and the Reader on the Law of Real Property.
4. That the said Readers be selected from the members of this Society of the Degree of Barrister-at-Law, and that they be elected annually on the first Saturday in Michaelmas Term in each year.
5. That to each of such Readers there be paid out of the general funds of the Society a yearly salary of £150; such salary to be paid in quarterly payments, in accordance with the rules of the Society regulating the payment of the salary of the present Lecturers and Examiners.
6. That the first election of Readers shall take place forthwith, upon the approval of this rule by the Visitors.
7. That immediately upon this rule going into effect, and hereafter on the first Saturday in Michaelmas Term in each year, there shall be appointed a Standing Committee of Convocation, to consist of five members and the Treasurer for the time being, and to be styled "the Committee on Legal Education;" which Committee shall be charged with the superintendence of the said Law School, and of all examinations of the Society in Law except examination in open Convocation, and the said Committee shall report to Convocation in each term.

8. That the existing rules of this Society as to the keeping of terms and compulsory attendance on lectures during term by Students-at-Law do remain in force, with this addition, that there be two lectures on each day during term, instead of one, as heretofore; the hours of such lectures and the division of the lectures in term amongst the four Readers to be determined by rules from time to time to be made by the Committee on Legal Education, but the lectures during term to be nevertheless considered as delivered in the Law School, and as forming part of the course of instruction in law afforded therein.

9. That in addition to the lectures in term, there be established courses of lectures to be delivered during the educational terms of the Law School, of which educational terms there shall be three in each year, to commence respectively on the first Monday after Hilary, Trinity, and Michaelmas Terms, and to continue during six consecutive weeks; during each of which educational terms each Reader shall deliver a course of lectures upon a subject of legal science, to be selected by the Reader and approved of by the Committee on Legal Education.

10. That in addition to lectures, the Readers during such educational terms shall hold readings, shall preside at mootings, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the rules and regulations to be framed by the Committee on Legal Education.

11. That attendance on the lectures in the Law School during the educational terms shall be voluntary.

12. That tickets of admission to the Law School during each educational term shall be issued by the Secretary to Students, at a charge of one dollar for each ticket, and the proceeds shall be carried to a separate account in the books of the Society, to be styled "The Law School account."

13. That all written examinations in law shall be conducted in the Law School, in the presence of at least two of the Readers and one Benchor who is a member of the Committee on Legal Education.

14. That there shall be four Scholarships in the Law Society.

One for Students under one year's standing of £80 per annum.

One for Students under two years' standing and over one year's of £40 per annum.

One for Students under three years' standing and over two years' of £50 per annum.

One for Students under four years' standing and over three years' of £60 per annum.

Any Student who has taken any degree entitling him to call in three years, shall be considered as a Student of over two years in reference to these Scholarships. These Scholarships shall be open to all Students in Upper Canada on the books of the Law Society of the prescribed standing, whether Students in the Law School or not.

15. That the annual allowance to such Scholars shall be paid to them out of the general funds of the Society quarterly, on the first Monday after each term.

16. That the examinations for Scholarships be conducted by the same persons and in the same manner as other examinations in law, and in such books and on such subjects as the Committee on Legal Education may determine, subject however to the disallowance or revision by Convocation of any rules which such committee may make.

17. That the successful candidates for such Scholarships be determined by Convocation, and the Scholarships be awarded in a formal manner by the Treasurer in open Convocation.

18. That the Readers to be appointed under this rule shall be in the place of the Examiners for Call and Lecturers appointed under the present general rules of the Society, and such rules are hereby declared applicable to the said Readers, who shall perform the duties heretofore performed by the Examiners, receiving only the salaries affixed to the office of Reader by this rule.

TABLE OF DESCENT OF REAL ESTATE.

ACCORDING TO THE LAW OF UPPER CANADA,

(Con. Stat. U. C., c. 82.)

N.B.—This table applies only to persons dying on or after 1st January, 1862. As to all persons who died before that day, the Law of Descent is the same as in England.

The Real Estate, in Upper Canada, of all persons dying on or after 1st January, 1862, descends as follows:—

1st.—To lineal descendants, and those claiming by or under them per stirpes.

2nd.—To the Father.

3rd.—To the Mother.

4th.—To collateral relatives.

Subject, however, to the following Rules:—

First.—If the intestate leave several descendants in the direct line of lineal descent and all of equal degree of consanguinity to such intestate, the inheritance will descend to such persons in equal parts, however remote from the intestate the common degree of consanguinity may be.

Second.—If any of the children of the intestate be living, and some be dead, the inheritance will descend to the children living, and to the descendants of those who are dead, so that each child who shall be living shall inherit such share as would have descended to him if all the children of the intestate who shall have died, leaving issue, had been living—and so that the descendants of such as are dead shall inherit the share which their deceased parent would have received if living.

Third.—The same rule applies where descendants of the intestate are of unequal degrees of consanguinity.

Fourth.—If the intestate die without lineal descendants, and leaving a father, the inheritance will go to the father, unless the inheritance came to the intestate on the part of the mother, and such mother be living. If the mother be dead, the inheritance descending on her part will go to father for life, and reversion to the brothers and sisters of the intestate and the descendants of such as may be dead. If there be no brother or sister, or descendant of brother or sister, the inheritance will go to the father.

Fifth.—If intestate die without any lineal descendants and leaving no father, or leaving a father not entitled under the last rule, and leaving a mother and brothers and sisters or descendants of a brother or sister, the inheritance will go

Sixth.—If no father or mother capable of inheriting under the preceding rules, then, the inheritance will fall to the collateral relatives in equal degree in equal parts.

Seventh.—If intestate leave only brother, or sister or descendant of brother or sister, the inheritance will go to those living and to the descendants of those who are dead equally.

Eighth.—If the intestate leaves no heir entitled under the foregoing rules, then if the inheritance came on the part of the father, will go to brothers and sisters of the father, and the descendants of such as may be dead.

Ninth.—If no brother or sister of father and no descendant of a brother or sister of father, the inheritance will go to the brother or sister or descendant of brother or sister of mother.

Tenth.—Where inheritance came on part of the mother, then the same shall descend to the brothers and sisters and descendants of brothers and sisters of the mother.

Eleventh.—Where the inheritance came neither on part of mother nor father the brothers and sisters, and their descendants, of father and mother shall inherit equally.

Twelfth.—The half blood shall inherit equally with whole blood, unless the inheritance came by descent or devise or gift of some one of intestate's ancestors, in which case those not of blood of the ancestor shall be excluded.

Thirteenth.—Failing heirs as aforesaid, the inheritance will go to the next of kin according to the rules of the English Statute of Distributions.

Fourteenth.—The posthumous child will inherit equally with those born in the lifetime of intestate.

Fifteenth.—Illegitimate children cannot inherit.

Sixteenth.—If any child has been advanced by settlement or portion, and the same shall have been so expressed in writing by the intestate, or acknowledged by the child, the value of such advancement or portion shall be reckoned as part of the intestate's real and personal estate. If the advancement or portion be equal or superior to the amount of the share which such child would take, such child shall be excluded from any further inheritance. If unequal, the difference will go to such child.

TABLE OF DISTRIBUTION OF PERSONAL ESTATE OF INTESTATES.

ACCORDING TO THE LAWS OF ENGLAND AND UPPER CANADA.

If Intestate die leaving—

His personal Representatives take thus, viz.:

Wife and child or children.....	{ One-third to wife, rest to child or children; if children dead, then to their representatives (that is, their lineal descendants), except such child or children (not heirs-at-law) who had estate by settlement of intestate, in his life time equal to the other shares.
